

We are strongly opposed to any actions by the FCC that would allow for further concentration of broadcast ownership through expansion of the percent of the market that can be owned by a single corporation or their subsidiaries, or by any other action that might be taken by the FCC that will produce a similar outcome.